The Watson-Powers Wedding At Home of The Bride-Commissioners Given Authority To Repair Plant.

A quiet wedding, but one of great interest to this community took place last Wednesday at the residence of W. I. Powers, when his only daughter, Thelma Hardy Powers, became the wife of Homer George Watson, youngest son of Mrs. Henry Watson of this place. The ceremony was strictly private, those present being Mr. Powers, Mrs. Watson and as attendants, Miss Frances Cree and Paul Cheney. The Rev. John C. Stephenson officiated with the very beautiful Episcopal ceremony. The bride was dressed in a very becoming brown traveling suit. Very shortly after the event the newly married pair rode away in the Cheney car to take the train at Newport for a wedding trip. On their return they will live with Mr. Powers. Mr. and Mrs. Watson are both among our best-known and liked young people. They have lived here all their lives, have been schoolmates and friends and this consummation of a life-long friendship receives the congratulations and good wishes of the entire community.

At the special village meeting last Wednesday evening expert electricians were present who gave figures in regard to remodeling the electric light plant. There was little debate on the subject, and it was voted to allow the electric light commissioners all authority to go on and make necessary changes to bring the system up to greater efficiency. This seems to be the general opinion, and the needed steps will begin at once.

The whole of Main street, from Depot street to the creamery bridge, has been given a coat of gravel. Broad street from the crossing to the Watrous is receiving the same treatment, and the town authorities are now gravelling the East Burke road from the creamery bridge north.

The Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church enjoyed a very pleasant social at the parsonage Saturday evening. About 20 young people were present and they played games, had music and refreshments and a generally happy time.

The prospectuses of the lecture course are being distributed this week. There will be six entertainments, two concerts, one by the Ithaca Ladies' Quartet and one by the Temple Male Quartet, a lecture by Edward Amherst Ott, who is a great favorite here, a well recommended lecture on Mexico by Prof. Joubert, an evening's entertainment by Katherine Ridgeway, and the Hon. Champ Clark of Missouri.

Jacob Libbey of Corinth, a former resident here, is stopping with his son, E. B. Libbey, at the Center.

The Alumni of Lyndon Institute gave their annual reception to the faculty, trustees and students in the chapel last Friday evening. There was a large attendance and an excellent program was prepared, which included orchestra music, singing by L. C. Eaton and readings by Mrs. Anna Spencer Frost.

Little Philip Mathewson was ill for a few days last week.

At the republican caucus Charles L. Stuart was nominated a candidate for town representative. Mr. Stuart is a citizen of high standing and will make a winning fight.

Isaac Pearl, aged 95 died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Gray, last Sunday. He had lately moved here from Sheffield and had been in good health until about two weeks ago. He also had one brother, Jeremy Pearl, of this town. The funeral was held Tuesday.

Jay Theodore Pickell died at Lyndon Center last week Saturday, from the effects of a paralytic shock, complicated by diabetes, aged 70. He was a native of Canada and had lived in this country about 18 years. He had been employed by the Village Improvement Society and by C. L. Stuart and was an honest and hard-working man. In 1900 he married Fannie Cowdry of this place, who survives him. He also leaves three children in Canada by his first marriage. Interment was at Lyndon Center.

The Music Circle of the Lyndon Union Club will have charge of the next meeting, which will be an organ recital in the Universalist church on Tuesday evening, Oct. 20. The organist will be Mrs. C. M. Richmond of St. Johnsbury and the circle have planned to assist in the program. The social committee will serve light refreshments after the meeting and the members are asked to bring cups.
